Social and Personal

INVITATIONS have been received here for two prominent weddings that will take place very shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brevitt Townsend, of Philadelphia, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Katherine Adeline, to George Sharp Munson, the ceremony to take place on Saturday afternoon, June 11, at 5 o'clock, at the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, Pa. A reception will follow the ceremony at "Raynham," the country place of the bride's parents. Miss Townsend is a niece of Mrs. James Caskie, of this city, and has visited relatives here on several occasions. She has been one of the most admired girls in Philadelphia society since her debut, and her mother, formerly Miss Palmer, was one of the most attractive girls in Richmond before her marriage to Mr. Townsend. The wedding will be a big society function. A special train will carry guests from Philadelphia to Overbrook, and coaches will carry them to the church and to "Raynham" for the reception following the ceremony.

Another fashionable out-of-town wedding in which Richmond society is much interested is that of Miss Dorothea Van Dyke, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Van Dyke, and Guy Richards McLane, of New York, the ceremony to take place on Thursday

CLOSING EXERCISES OF SUNNY SIDE HIGH SCHOOL
 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Dinwiddie, Va., May 26.—The most successful session in the history of Sunny Side High School, near Champs, Va., came to a close on Tuesday night last after an entertaining and interesting program, covering two nights.

Owing to the great growth of the school during the past session, there being an increase of 25 per cent over last year, the one-night program had to be extended.

Monday night was devoted principally to exercises by the younger children, who displayed rare talent and excellent training in executing their parts.

The program Tuesday night was in the main a musical one, followed by a very interesting address on the life of General William H. Broadus, delivered by P. H. Drewry, of Petersburg, which in turn was followed by an educational address by R. L. Blanton, of Richmond.

There were no graduates this time, the students composing the graduating class having decided to wait and take their diplomas in June, when the high school building, which the seniors are laboring so loyally to have ready for the coming session. With such a building, the advantages of a larger faculty and a special course in agriculture will be offered.

In spite of the roads and weather the school was packed to overflowing each night, showing forcibly the immediate need of a larger school building.

LEAVES FOR FORT MEYER.
 Cavalry Troop Breaks Camp Early—Indictments by Grand Jury.
 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Fredericksburg, Va., May 26.—United States troops, Company A, Fifteenth Cavalry, fifty men and fifty horses, arrived here yesterday morning and went into camp at Fort Meyer. The night and left at 4 o'clock this morning on their way to Fort Meyer, where they will arrive some time tomorrow. The baseball team of the troop played a picked Fredericksburg team, and the troops won by a score of 10 to 4.

The divorce case of Knight vs. Knight has been removed from the Circuit Court of Stafford county to the Court of the United States, and the trial will take place May 31 at the point in the fight for the custody of the two small children.

The grand jury in session yesterday brought in five indictments—four against Johnson Bird, colored, for forging checks on the bank of this city, and one against Mollie Ellis, for housebreaking. The jury is still in session.

MASSONS LAY CORNERSTONE OF NEW ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL
 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Orange, Va., May 26.—In interesting exercises this afternoon the cornerstone of the new Orange High School was laid, under the direction of the Masonic fraternity. Professor Alexander, of the Orange High School, was in charge of local arrangements, and introduced as the speaker of the occasion Professor E. H. Russell, of the State Normal School at Fredericksburg, who made a rousing address, which was well received. Grand Master W. B. McChesney, of Staunton, presided. Senior Warden Bowman, of Fredericksburg, with District Deputy W. J. Phillips, were present and officiated. A joint communication of the Masonic lodge, of this section took place to-night, and refreshments were served by the High School girls at a smoker given by the Massons.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO.
 Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Snead to Celebrate Golden Wedding on June 13.
 Fayetteville, N. C., May 26.—Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Snead, of Hope Mills, will celebrate their golden wedding June 13 next. They were married June 13, 1861. Mrs. Snead was Miss Annie Clayborne. She is seventy-two years of age and is a direct descendant of Colonel Clayborne, who gave so much trouble about the Virginia-Norfolk boundary line. She was educated in Buckingham Female Institute, Buckingham county, Va. She has the reputation of being the best speller at present in North Carolina. She spells rapidly, backwards as well as forwards, and the longest words in the English language. So far as known, there is only one other woman who can compete with her, and that woman lives in Maine.

Dr. Snead was born in Johnson county, N. C., seventy-four years ago. He served as assistant surgeon in the Confederate army for about three years. He first served as captain of Company C, Fifth North Carolina Infantry, under Colonel Duncan K. McRae. His mother was Miss Mary Williams, daughter of the late Isaac Williams, of Johnson county.

Verdict for Defendant.

CAMP NAMED FOR CONGRESSMAN HAY
 Military Duties Practically Consume Every Hour of Day.
BEST OF HEALTH PREVAILS
 U. S. Army Officers and Prominent Citizens to Attend Banquet To-Night.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Luray, Va., May 26.—The banquet which will take place at Camp James Hay to-morrow night will be attended not only by the 100 officers in camp, but by a number of United States Army officers from the War Department, and by a number of prominent citizens from Luray and the surrounding country.

The large mess hall, which will seat 200, has been decorated with the colors of the army and of Virginia. General C. S. Vaughan will preside and act as toastmaster.

Among the officers the best of health prevails. Not a single case of serious illness has been called to the attention of Colonel Lynch, who is at the head of the medical department. It has been said that the State encampment, which will take place in July and August, may be held here, for all the officers are greatly pleased with the splendid camp grounds.

Named "Camp James Hay."
 The camp, by order of General Vaughan, has been officially designated "Camp James Hay" in honor of James Hay, United States Representative from this district, and chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs.

The officers have gotten down to hard work, for military duties practically consume every hour of the day and night except sleeping time.

The bugle call is sounded at 6 o'clock, and there follows a rush to the shower baths. Breakfast call comes at 8:30, and after a hearty breakfast the United States Army instructors instill military knowledge until 8:30 o'clock in the evening, barring recesses for dinner and supper.

Some of the State officers attend classes in the mess hall, but for the most part the officers are taken on hikes around the country, the instructors lecturing on the march and explaining tactics in the very position where such problems might occur.

Punishment of "Singers."
 An amusing incident happened to-day, when a large squad was marched fifteen miles, coming in nearly dead heat. These officers had kept one of the United States Army officers awake last night with a vile assortment of tuneless barber shop chords, and vengeance followed at double quick time. The United States officer simply remarked: "I'll bet they don't disturb any one to-morrow night," and so he kept the singers until the tired music among the heroes to-night.

The most humorous thing about camp is the name of a negro restaurant just outside the fence, which surrounds the grounds. The sign, in great letters, reads: "General Ulysses Simpson Grant Fry Restaurant."

Colonel J. L. Smith spends most of his time in administering the warlike sign. On the opening day of camp the officers were turned out as on dress parade, and as neat as dandies, but alas! the hikes and heat and dust wrought a change, and "dandyism" has been a thing of the past.

It is only fair to say that the camp which is most promptly answered is "mess call." There is never an absentee, nor is there an idle moment.

CLERKS REMOVED
 George E. Taylor and George C. Criddle Ordered Out by Postmaster Allan.
 George E. Taylor, former post office clerk at Station B, of the Richmond division, has been ordered removed from office, following the charge that he embezzled $30 from the Federal government. The removal was ordered by Postmaster Edgar Allan, Jr., and will be acted on within a few days.

Although Lee Woodson, of 804 North Twenty-fifth Street, an express messenger, has been recommended to fill the vacancy.

Postmaster Allan has also ordered the removal of George C. Criddle, of 703 North Twenty-first Street, clerk of the mailing division of the post-office, on the charge of embezzling $100. Criddle was removed on the basis of a report by a confidential source of the Richmond division, of 1025 Decatur Street, South of Criddle.

TERRIBLE TRAIN OF SYMPTOMS
 Followed in the Wake of the Trouble Which Overtook Mrs. Fournier, of Lake Charles.

Lake Charles, La.—"I was so sick, as a result of womanly trouble, that I thought I would die," writes Mrs. E. Fournier, of 516 Kirby Street, this city. "I used to suffer every month, and no doctor could relieve me."

"The month before I took Cardui I could hardly walk, and could not wear my corset."

"I had backache, headache, pain in my legs, chills, fainting spells, sick stomach, dragging feelings, and no patience or courage."

"Since taking Cardui I feel like a different woman. I have no more pain, can walk as far as I want, and feel good all the time."

"I advise all sick ladies to try Cardui, the woman's tonic."

You can buy many medicines and tonics for men's and women's ills, but only in Cardui can you get the benefit of the combination herb medicines peculiar to Cardui alone.

The principal herb ingredients have been found of remarkable efficacy for women's ills, are now grown abroad especially for us, and used by us exclusively in the preparation of Cardui, which every druggist sells.

Try Cardui.

N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions and 64-page book, "Home Treatment of Women," sent in plain wrapper on request.

CITY BONDS WILL MATURE ON JUNE 1
 Petersburg Will Redeem Issue of $165,000 From Sinking Fund.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., May 26.

Six per cent bonds of the city of Petersburg to the amount of $165,000 will mature on June 1, and they will be redeemed in cash from the sinking fund. The city has the money in hand ready to pay off the bonds as fast as presented. Indeed, the city has been ready for months past to retire any of these bonds that might be presented, and advertised its readiness to do so, but not one has yet been brought in.

A Fine Showing.
 Chairman N. T. Patterson, of the Finance Committee, stated to-day that the city's resources for the coming fiscal year, beginning July 1, will exceed by $70,000 the expenses, including interest on bonds, and allowing very liberal appropriations for all the municipal departments. This is a fine showing.

The city will continue its broad system of public improvements, on which large sums of money have been expended during the past few years.

Delegates to Council.
 The Council of the Episcopal Church of the Southern Diocese of Virginia will convene in annual session in Roanoke next Wednesday. Bishop A. M. Randolph will preside, assisted by Coadjutor-Bishop B. D. Tucker. The representatives from the Petersburg churches will be:

St. John's—Rev. F. G. Scott, D. D., acting rector. Delegates—B. Bolling Wilcox and George Mason. Alternates—Judge J. M. Mullen and Charles T. Lassiter.

Grace Church—Rev. C. Braxton Bryan, D. D., rector. Delegate—William L. Zimmer. Alternate—E. A. Robertson.

St. John's—Rev. Pembroke W. Reed, rector. Delegate—R. O. Egerton. Alternate—Bernard Mann.

Good Shepherd—Rev. F. G. Ribble, rector. This being a mission church, it is not entitled to a delegate.

It is not known that anything of unusual interest will come up for consideration in the council, outside of the reports of the bishops.

Contract Awarded.
 The board of directors of the American Bank and Trust Company has awarded to Charles T. Williamson, of this city, the contract for the erection of the company's new banking house, and the contract calls for the completion of the building by the last day of October. Approximately, the cost will be $30,000.

The building is to be a two-story brick structure, with a frontage of thirty-four feet on Sycamore Street and a depth of 166 feet. The front will be of typical Georgian architecture, and of very handsome design. The second floor will be converted into suites of eleven offices. The main street floor will be for banking purposes, fitted up with all modern conveniences, safe deposit vaults and bank offices.

Personal and Otherwise.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irby Scott have issued invitations to the marriage of their niece, Miss Florence Nellie Young, to Clement Douglas Barkdale, on Thursday evening, June 8, at 9 o'clock, in the First Baptist Church. The prospective bride is a young woman of brilliant musical attainments.
